In a marketplace of pretenders, the Calera Wine Company has always made top-quality Chardonnays in the $20 price range. This wine's performance is not surprising if one looks at the overall excellence of what this producer has made.

The 2015 Calera Central Coast Chardonnay satisfies both with its aromas and flavors. This wine exhibits bright core fruit notes, with some dried herbs and fruit. Pair its savory accents with a herbal-accented oven-baked chicken.
