

gorgeous black cherry, dark raspberry fruit
remarkably long finish

illuminating

92

points

CALERA

2002 Mills Vineyard Pinot Noir

Mt. Harlan – Jensen ardently believes his Mt. Harlan Pinots require patience to be fully appreciated, which is why he holds back release of the Calera reds until they've evolved in the bottle after several years of aging. This '02 Mills is illuminating. Calera's '02 Mills Vineyard Pinot has rounded out and fleshed out beautifully, showing gorgeous black cherry, dark raspberry fruit, earthy notes of forest floor and root spices, with a remarkably long, lingering finish.

92 (points)

December 2006

winereviewonline.com

Robert Whitley is publisher and managing partner of Wine Review Online, author of "Wine Talk," a column syndicated nationally by the Copley News Service, host of two weekly radio shows, Whitley on Wine and the Gourmet Club, for World Talk Radio, and director of three major wine competitions.

