

“Nicely stated cherryish fruit with nuances of cola, dusty earth, spice and toasted vanilla bean give this wine a fine start, and its medium-intensity, well-focused flavors reiterate the point, given the fine aging record of Calera Pinots, it deserves a few years in bottle to settle down.”

Shelfprose