

“Freshly cut flowers, sage, tobacco and incense all lift from the glass in the 2011 Pinot Noir Reed Vineyard, a weightless, sensual wine built on a total sense of class. Precise and nuanced throughout, the 2011 isn’t ready to show all of its cards just yet, rather elements of mystery and intrigue linger in the glass. The polished, saline finish, with its whole cluster nuances, simply adds to the wine’s total sense of elegance. This north-facing parcel ripens a full month later than the more precocious sites on the estate.”

Antonio Galloni
vinous

07.14

94 points