CALERA
RYAN

2005 Pinot Noir

Medium red. Musky red berry and cherry aromas are complicated by dried flowers and herbs, with a strong anise note gaining strength with air. Light in body and refreshingly bitter, offering focused cherry flesh and pit flavors, with a rooty licorice topnote. A firm and rather uncompromising wine that benefited from aeration, picking up sweet finishing notes of raspberry and candied plum. — Josh Reynolds
