

The Ryan Vineyard Pinot Noir is another outstanding effort from Calera in 2012. As this begins to open, it releases intoxicating aromas of rose petals, strawberries, pomegranate, black cherries and raspberry liqueur. The palate carries on the same theme, attacking with precise and harmonious layers of crushed stone, black cherries and fresh raspberries. Everything finishes up long and silky, with delicious ripe fruits lingering. (Best 2016-2025)

International
WINE REPORT

COASTAL CALIFORNIA REVIEWS 07.15

93 POINTS