

Calera's 2012 Pinot Noir Selleck

Vineyard is virtually seamless on the palate, with deep layers of fruit that nearly bury the tannins.

Dark red and purplish fruit, mint, lavender, sage and sweet spices. Nuanced and impeccably balanced throughout, the 2012 captures the sexiness of the vintage yet retains tons of aromatic nuance and finesse.

The 2012 will be a fascinating wine to follow over the next decade-plus.
