

WINEENTHUSIAST
MAGAZINE 12.17

92
POINTS

CALERA

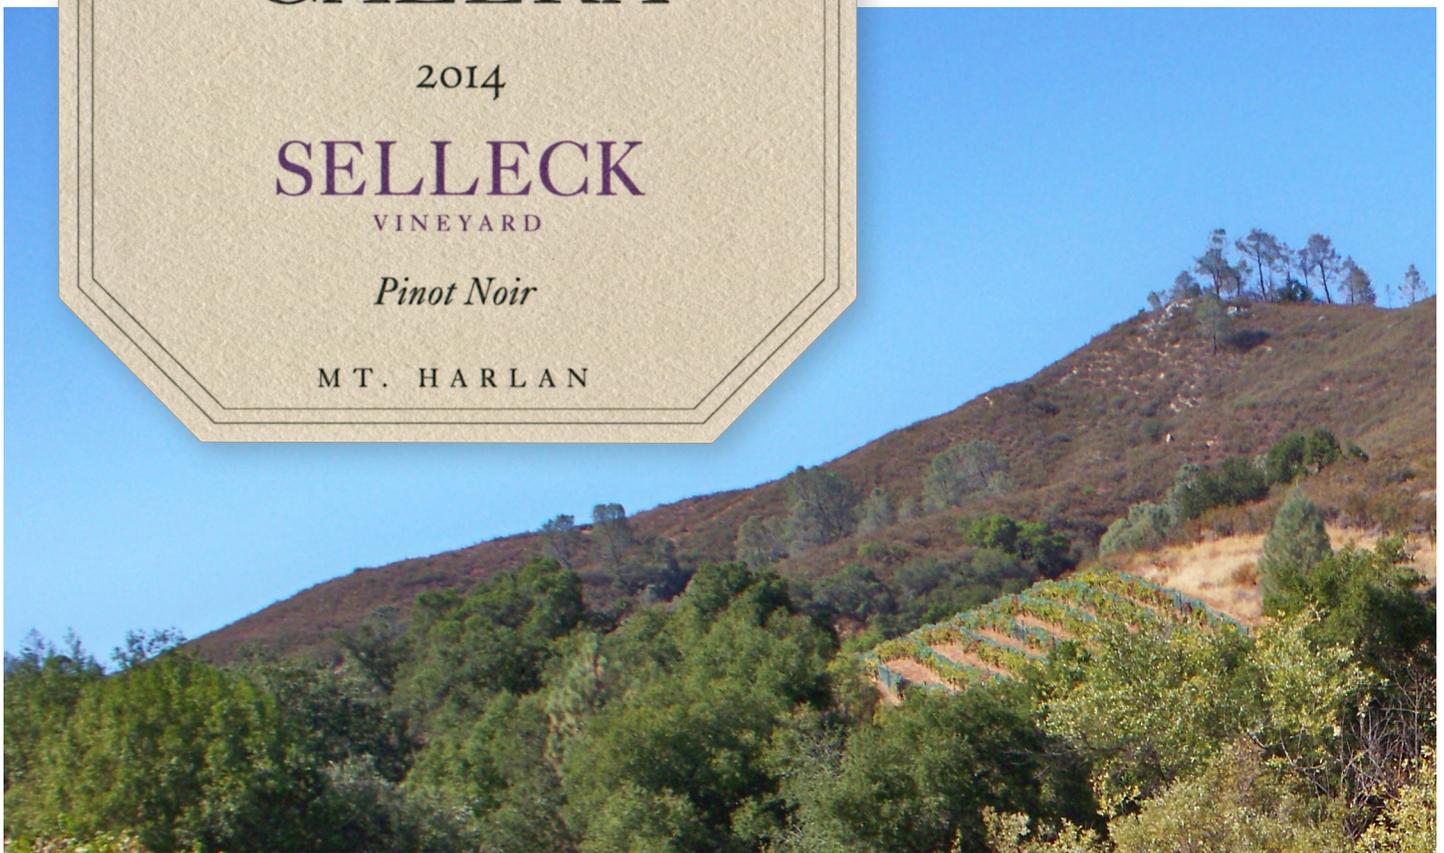

2014

SELLECK

VINEYARD

Pinot Noir

M T . H A R L A N

With just over a half-ton harvested per acre due to the drought, this is a potent wine, with nose-tickling dark boysenberry, asphalt and wet stone aromas and brighter lifts of dried sage and raspberry. The soft palate combines vibrant acidity with raspberry and mulberry flavors and a hint of dried herbs.

– Matt Kettmann

