

“The 2014 Pinot Noir Selleck Vineyard is one of the riper, more extroverted wines in this range.

I expect the Selleck will, in time, be superb, but it needs at least a few years to shed some baby fat. Today, it comes across as quite ripe and intense.

Dark cherry, plum lavender, mint and exotic spice overtones add to the wine’s distinctly bold personality.”

— Antonio Galloni

94
POINTS

