

CALERA WINE COMPANY
2003 MT. HARLAN VIOGNIER

Closing Date: 6-30-05
Issue 159

"From one of America's

finest producers of Viognier,

the 2003 Viognier exhibits

a light greenish hue to its

straw/gold color as well

as complex

mineral and floral notes intermixed with honeyed

citrus and orange blossom scents. Medium-bodied and elegant, this impressive Viognier reveals more class and complexity than most California examples of this varietal. It should drink well for 1-3 years".

—Robert Parker Jr.

91 pts

The first great California Viognier I ever had was Calera's, and I've
drunk it over many times. Deep and elegant.
Steve Heimoff, 9/1/05

WINEENTHUSIAST

92 pts

CALERA WINE COMPANY
2003 MT. HARLAN VIOGNIER

Closing Date: 6-30-05
Issue 159

"From one of America's

finest producers of Viognier,

the 2003 Viognier exhibits

a light greenish hue to its

straw/gold color as well

as complex

mineral and floral notes intermixed with honeyed

citrus and orange blossom scents. Medium-bodied and el-

egant, this impressive Viognier reveals more class and complexity than most California examples of this varietal. It

should drink well for 1-3 years".

—Robert Parker Jr.

91 pts

The first great California Viognier I ever had was Calera's, and I've
drunk it over many times. Deep and elegant.
Steve Heimoff, 9/1/05

WINEENTHUSIAST

CALERA WINE COMPANY
2003 MT. HARLAN VIOGNIER

Closing Date: 6-30-05
Issue 159

"From one of America's

finest producers of Viognier,

the 2003 Viognier exhibits

a light greenish hue to its

straw/gold color as well

as complex

mineral and floral notes intermixed with honeyed

citrus and orange blossom scents. Medium-bodied and el-

egant, this impressive Viognier reveals more class and complexity than most California examples of this varietal. It

should drink well for 1-3 years".

—Robert Parker Jr.

91 pts

The first great California Viognier I ever had was Calera's, and I've
drunk it over many times. Deep and elegant.
Steve Heimoff, 9/1/05

WINEENTHUSIAST

92 pts

CALERA WINE COMPANY
2003 MT. HARLAN VIOGNIER

Closing Date: 6-30-05
Issue 159

"From one of America's

finest producers of Viognier,

the 2003 Viognier exhibits

a light greenish hue to its

straw/gold color as well

as complex

mineral and floral notes intermixed with honeyed

citrus and orange blossom scents. Medium-bodied and el-

egant, this impressive Viognier reveals more class and complexity than most California examples of this varietal. It

should drink well for 1-3 years".

—Robert Parker Jr.

91 pts

The first great California Viognier I ever had was Calera's, and I've
drunk it over many times. Deep and elegant.
Steve Heimoff, 9/1/05

WINEENTHUSIAST

92 pts

CALERA WINE COMPANY
2003 MT. HARLAN VIOGNIER

Closing Date: 6-30-05
Issue 159

"From one of America's

finest producers of Viognier,

the 2003 Viognier exhibits

a light greenish hue to its

straw/gold color as well

as complex

mineral and floral notes intermixed with honeyed

citrus and orange blossom scents. Medium-bodied and el-

egant, this impressive Viognier reveals more class and complexity than most California examples of this varietal. It

should drink well for 1-3 years".

—Robert Parker Jr.

91 pts

The first great California Viognier I ever had was Calera's, and I've
drunk it over many times. Deep and elegant.
Steve Heimoff, 9/1/05

WINEENTHUSIAST

92 pts

CALERA WINE COMPANY
2003 MT. HARLAN VIOGNIER

Closing Date: 6-30-05
Issue 159

"From one of America's

finest producers of Viognier,

the 2003 Viognier exhibits

a light greenish hue to its

straw/gold color as well

as complex

mineral and floral notes intermixed with honeyed

citrus and orange blossom scents. Medium-bodied and el-

egant, this impressive Viognier reveals more class and complexity than most California examples of this varietal. It

should drink well for 1-3 years".

—Robert Parker Jr.

91 pts

The first great California Viognier I ever had was Calera's, and I've
drunk it over many times. Deep and elegant.
Steve Heimoff, 9/1/05

WINEENTHUSIAST

